1. A six hectare farm has four hectares assigned for food producing and two hectares for pasture land. The quota prescribed for a farm of this size during 1951 was as follows: 250 kg beef, 125 kg pork, 400 eggs, 250 kg barley, 38 kg wheat, 40 kg rye, 90 kg flax, 4 kg poppy seed, 600 liters milk, 28 kg legumes, 100 kg straw, 320 kg potatoes, 100 kg hay.
2. In 1952, however, the above quota for delivery to the state was increased to 800 kg beef, 200 kg pork, 700 eggs, 320 kg barley, 150 kg wheat, 150 kg rye, 490 kg flax, 40 kg poppy seed, 700 liters milk, 40 kg legumes, 150 kg straw, 2,000 kg potatoes, 150 kg hay, 40 kg mixtures, 40 kg apples, 40 kg pears and 20 kg plums.
3. Frequent meetings are held in the villages to persuade individual farmers to join a JZD (unified agricultural cooperative). The quota has been deliberately set high in order to force the farmers to join a JZD. The meetings are poorly attended by the farmers.
4. Farmers who do not fulfill their quotas receive no ration cards for food or clothing. Non-members receive no fertilizer allotments for their farms.
5. A farmer, owner of seven hectares of land, was arrested by the STB because he was unable to fulfill his quota. When sentenced to a term in prison, all his property was confiscated. Members of his family were forced for work for other farmers in the vicinity.
6. It is expected that all non-members will be severely punished during 1953 and forced to join the JZD.
7. Farm buildings and machinery are neglected as a result of the constant pressure by the JZD.
8. A JZD was established in obec Zavod, the okres Malacky. Members of this JZD at no time had land of their own because they were employed in factories. To obtain land for these members all church properties were confiscated.
9. A farmer in the okres Zavod concealed a pig in his barn. When the JZD learned of this he was sentenced to a five year prison term and fined 50 thousand crowns. In addition, all of his property was confiscated, his son was expelled from the University and sent to the mines and his father was also sentenced to a year in prison and fined 20 thousand crowns because he allegedly knew about the incident and did not report it.
